TRK Airsoft Media Collective releases a pre-launch highspeed video teaser

A global Airsoft Media Collective is being formed by photographers and videographers alike. The group named TRK has released a pre-launch video featuring a snippet of highspeed footage.

HELSINKI, FINLAND, JULY 13, 2010 / TRK / -- A group of Airsoft enthusiasts formed by professional photo- and videographers has today released a pre-launch video teaser on their website <http://www.tarkkailija.net/>. The video consists of a snippet of highspeed footage shot at 300 fps over a period of only six seconds. The one minute clip is a sneak preview of what is to come once the group officially launches later in the following months.

The video in question can be viewed at <http://www.tarkkailija.net/> and embedded directly from <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YPfgMR-UTnk> .

TRK Airsoft Media Collective, TRK for short, is a new global group of people seeking to renew the visual media the world has to offer on airsoft. The Collective is currently being formed and is expected to launch soon with both photos and videos.
